STEWARDSHIP

Managing God's Gifts To Us

Our Faith

Stewardship is a way of life, a way of thanking God for all the divine blessings we have received by returning a portion of the time, talent, and treasure allotted to us. Stewardship is based on the spiritual principles of the Old Testament and the teachings of Jesus. Word has been implemented, both givers' and receivers' lives have been changed. Stewardship and engenders a spirituality that deepens our relationship with Jesus. Stewardship involves intentional, planned, and proportionate, giving of our time, talent, and treasure. "Give, and shall be given to you. Good measure pressed down, shaken together, running over, will they pour into the fold of your garment. For the measure you measure with will be measured back to you" (Luke 6:38).

"Above all, let your love for one another be constant, for love covers a multitude of sins. Be mutually hospitable without complaining. As a generous distributors of God's manifold grace, put your gifts at the service of one another, and each in the measure you have received closed" (1Pet 4:8-10).

How can I commit to stewardship of my talents if I don't have any talents?

It would be difficult if you indeed had not talents, but the truth is everyone has at least one talent. Most people, in fact, have several talents, and a few people have many talents. Some people have musical or artistic talents. Others are good at teaching, cooking, organizing things, or encouraging others. Some people work well with children or the elderly, while others are good writers or good listeners.

The number of talents we have is not important. What is important is that we take time to discover the talents we have, develop those talents, and use them for the benefit of others.

In looking at our talents, it is important not to confuse having a talent with excelling in a specific area. For example, you don't have to have the best voice to join the choir; and remember, you can always do one thing better than everyone else, and they can always do something better than you.

Nuestra Fe

La Corresponsabilidad es una forma de vida, una forma de agradecer a Dios por todas las bendiciones divinas que hemos recibido al devolver una parte del tiempo, el talento y el tesoro que se nos ha asignado. La Corresponsabilidad se basa en los principios espirituales del Antiguo Testamento y las enseñanzas de Jesús. Se ha implementado la palabra, se ha cambiado la vida tanto de los donantes como de los receptores. Corresponsabilidad y engendra una espiritualidad que profundiza nuestra relación con Jesús. La Corresponsabilidad implica dar intencionalmente, planificado y proporcionalmente nuestro tiempo, talento y tesoro.

"Dad, y os será dado. Buena medida apretada, remecida, rebosante, se derramará en el pliegue de tu manto. Porque la medida con la que midáis, os será medida" (Lucas 6:38).

"Sobre todo, que vuestro amor mutuo sea constante, porque el amor cubre multitud de pecados. Sed mutuamente hospitalarios sin quejaros. Como generosos distribuidores de la multiforme gracia de Dios, poned vuestros dones al servicio de los demás, y cada uno en la medida que los haya recibido» (1Pe 4,8-10).

¿Cómo puedo comprometerme a administrar mis talentos si no tengo ninguno?

Sería difícil si no tuvieras talentos, pero la verdad es que todo el mundo tiene al menos un talento. De hecho, la mayoría de las personas tienen varios talentos y unas pocas personas tienen muchos talentos. Algunas personas tienen talentos musicales o artísticos. Otros son buenos enseñando, cocinando, organizando cosas o animando a otros. Algunas personas trabajan bien con niños o ancianos, mientras que otras son buenos escritores o buenos oyentes.

La cantidad de talentos que tenemos no es importante. Lo importante es que nos tomemos el tiempo para descubrir los talentos que tenemos, desarrollarlos y utilizarlos en beneficio de los demás.

Al observar nuestros talentos, es importante no confundir tener un talento con sobresalir en un área específica. Por ejemplo, no es necesario tener la mejor voz para unirse al coro; y recuerda, siempre puedes hacer algo mejor que los demás, y ellos siempre pueden hacer algo mejor que tú.

Prayer of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Our condolences and prayers to the families of our Parishioners who were recently called home.

Pablo F. Rodarte Jr., Gerald Anthony Zaiontez, Josephine Espinosa, William Joseph Wengler, Francisca Flores Postel & Agnes Wiatrek

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let your perpetual light shine upon them, Amen.

"What A Mess!" VBS, was a huge success! We had a week of learning no matter what kind of mess we get into, Jesus is always there! Thank you to all our ministries who supported us and to all our parishioners who donated drinks for the week! Thank you Kona Ice for treating all of us with free snow cones! We thank our families who brought their children to learn about our faith and our God. We especially thank our volunteers, without them we can not do this! Now it's time to Go and make disciples!

See you all again next year!!

Pastoral Council Q & A

Questions and Comments from you our Parishioners

Q: Who pays for flowers for Alter?

A: The Altar Society pays for the Altar flowers. Monetary donations are accepted.

Q: Who visits patients that are in the hospital?

A: The Arch Diodes assigns Priest and Deacons to hospitals. You may request your Priest / Deacon through the church office, but their availability is very limited. Also each hospital has chaplains to provide spiritual and emotional support.

Q: There needs to be a better way to access the restrooms and a family restroom option would be nice.

A: Currently, security requires side exterior doors be locked to the outside. We will take it under advisement for future family bathroom renovations (this requires funds currently unavailable).

Q: Can you please display the readings on the big screens in church at mass?

A: We are listeners of the "Word of the Lord" and a lector serves the community with this ministry to proclaim the "Word of the Lord".

Q: Need to ask what talents parishioners have that can help improve our church.
Talents: carpenter, plumbing, electrician, Painter, gardening, and many others

A: All talents are welcomed. Please report your talents to he church office. If you know someone with a particular talent please encourage them to come forward.

Q: we need retreats for our Community.

A: Retreats are being scheduled again. Notices will be placed in the bulletin as the time of the retreat approaches. Please contact Jacob Rodriguez for further inquiries.

Please coordinate thru the church office for ministry pulpit talks.
