STEWARDSHIP

Managing God's Gifts To Us

Our Faith

Jesus asked us to commit ourselves to be good stewards of the gifts and trusted to us, to share our time, our talent, and our treasure has an outward sign of the love and gratitude we have for him
How much time have you spent this week in prayer for others and for the work of the Church?
Have you ever thought about how many hours you doing things for yourself versus how many you been doing things for others?
"Let him with two coats, give to the one to him who has none" (Luke 3:11).

Isn't committing to stewardship of time, talent and treasure, asking a lot of us?

Yes, it is. Committing to stewardship of time talent and treasure is an important part of living a Christian life. Real Christian living asks a lot of us and is not easy.

Making a commitment to stewardship is a particular challenge with the current emphasis on materialism, consumerism, and leisure time. We realize that we are involved in a gradual conversion process. This process involves a conversion of heart, of mind, of values, of budget, of pocketbook, of calendar, and of time. In this conversion process, we are called upon to say "yes" to God and to a way of life he has spelled out for us in the Bible. We are called upon to say "no" to the influences in our society that emphasize values and aims that are selfish, thoughtless, and opposed to stewardship as a way of life.

Nuestra Fe

Jesús nos pidió que nos comprometiéramos a ser buenos administradores de los dones y confió en nosotros, que compartir nuestro tiempo, nuestro talento y nuestro tesoro es una señal exterior del amor y la gratitud que le tenemos.

¿Cuánto tiempo has dedicado esta semana a la oración por los demás y por la obra de la Iglesia?
¿Alguna vez has pensado cuántas horas haces cosas por ti mismo versus cuántas horas haces cosas por los demás?

"El que tiene dos túnicas, dé al que no tiene" (Lucas 3:11).

¿No nos estan pidiendo mucho en comprometernos con la administración del tiempo, el talento y el tesoro?

Sí, lo es. Comprometerse a administrar el tiempo, el talento y el tesoro es una parte importante de vivir una vida cristiana. La verdadera vida de Christiana nos exige mucho y no es fácil.

Asumir un compromiso con la administración es un desafío particular con el énfasis actual en el materialismo, el consumismo y el tiempo libre. Nos damos cuenta de que estamos inmersos en un proceso de conversión gradual. Este proceso implica una conversión de corazón, de mente, de valores, de presupuesto, de bolsillo, de calendario y de tiempo. En este proceso de conversión, estamos llamados a decir "sí" a Dios y a una forma de vida que él nos ha explicado en la Biblia. Estamos llamados a decir "no" a las influencias en nuestra sociedad que enfatizan valores y objetivos que son egoístas, irreflexivos y opuestos a la administración como forma de vida.

Prayer of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Congratulations

Mrs. Castillo & Mr. Cano Class

Mr. & Mrs. Lee, Mr. & Mrs. Lopez, and Mr. & Mrs. Miles Class

Grant us, almighty God, that we may be refreshed and nourished by the Sacrament which we have received, so as to be transformed into what we consume.
